Pastor's Ponderings

by The Reverend Donna Frischknecht-Jackson

SCRIPTURE TO REFLECT UPON: "And God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:19

In August, I moderated my first Spiritual Life board meeting as pastor of Lyall Memorial Federated. It was indeed a Spirit-filled meeting as ideas were shared, concerns lifted and many praises given to God who is clearly at work in our midst through the questions, the celebrations and the challenges.

It was exciting to feel God's presence so strongly at the meeting table that night for it was exactly that presence that came through so strongly during my interviews with the members of the Pastor Nominating Committee months ago. It was that sense of God leading Lyall Memorial Federated into new and exciting ways of being Christ's body that opened my heart to saying "yes" to God's call and which soon had me packing up the U-Haul and heading out of New York's Washington County for that of beautiful Dutchess County.

Something, though, was mentioned at my first Spiritual Life meeting that has really stuck in my head, so much so I just had to share.

When it came to the update on the Special Events team, Caroline Reid reported about the Rally Day picnic, taking place following worship on September 8. (Make sure to mark your calendars!) As she talked about the logistics of the event and the menu, I just couldn't get out of my head the word "rally." I first heard of Rally Day while working as a Christian Ed director at a Baptist church prior to entering Princeton Seminary. For those not familiar with the term, it is basically the term used for the celebration in which the new church school year begins and all the children and families are welcomed back after being gone all summer.

But why "rally"? Wouldn't a simple "Welcome Back!" be sufficient? What are we saying when we use "rally"?

Here's some background: Rally Day began at the turn of the 20th century when Sunday school in America began to be shaped to model that of public school—complete with church school superintendents and even church school report cards! In the 1905 book, "How to Conduct a Sunday school," Rally Day is mentioned as a "festival used as a means of rallying the forces again for the work of fall and winter." The book goes on to explain: "When a general is preparing for a battle he is said to rally his forces. When a sick person begins to recover it is said of him that he is rallying. When a bookbinder brings together in one place the different sections of a book to be bound into one he is said to be rallying the book. All of these phrases may be applied to the Sunday-school work; we are rallying our forces for the great campaign of the fall and winter."

Hmmm...I never thought of the work we do for Christ as something that needs forces to be rallied. But forces to be rallied are exactly what are needed if God's light is to shine out into our community. For you see, the work of Christ's church just doesn't happen magically. Nor does it happen with just a few stepping up to the plate to seek and serve the lost as Christ came to do (see Luke 19:10).

Now I'm not one who tends to use military language, but it does seem fitting to say we need to rally the troops for aren't we in a battle of sorts to spread the word of God to others in a world that doesn't take the church and what it has to say about God seriously? The apostle Paul told his young protégé, Timothy, to fight the good fight. That fight continues for us as a faith community. And so, I guess we do need to “rally.”

September is the traditional kick off to a new season in the church but that new season shouldn't be just about welcoming people back from summer hiatuses. The kick off to a new season in the church—a season ripe with God possibilities—should be a time for us to rally together around the Word of God and in prayer with one another so that we can receive our “marching orders” in how to be the body of Christ in action. We can be sure, too, as we move forward with eyes on Christ and Christ alone that we will see what Paul was saying when he wrote to the church in Philippi, “And God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.” God will meet our needs whatever they may be.

September is here! A new church season is upon us! Not only do I look forward to welcoming you back from what I hope has been a wonderful summer, but also I look forward to rallying around God's Word with you so that together we can do the work of Christ that God is entrusting us to do.

Great is His Faithfulness!

Next meeting September 9th, 2013-7:00pm

Please join us for our next meeting. We meet at 7:00 pm to enjoy refreshments and visit a bit before our program and meeting.

Nancy Greer will surprise us with a hymn study. Hostesses are Ruth Tonkin & Darleen Walsh. We'd love to have you join US.

Expect to see our Bakeless Bake Sale flyer soon. This fund raiser helps increase the money we give to the many charities we support.

In June many of us attended the Ecumenical Salad Supper given this year by Verbank Methodist Church. It was lovely to see so many friends from the community. The food was really good, and we got to hear an interesting speaker – Mr. Billups. Since his retirement from IBM he has followed a friend into what amounts to a food ministry. You may have seen his truck with the name "To God Be the Glory" emblazoned on the side. He collects donations from groceries, bakeries and others with food to give. The ministry now has a refrigerated truck so meat can be included. At press time I haven't got all the information I'd like you to have. More next month...

Operation Christmas Child 2013

It's time to think about packing a shoebox again. Boxes will be given out in October, but we can start to gather school supplies and hygiene items during sale times. The collection box for older boys and girls will be in the hall again, so please fill it up with items on the monthly list. Last year New York Hudson Valley East contributed 7,430 shoeboxes, up 10%. Countries around the world sent out a total of 9,039,060 boxes. You can donate the following items from the monthly list: bar soap (unscented please), washcloths, toothbrushes, boxed toothpaste, combs, crayons, colored pencils, paper, small toys (bouncy balls, yo-yo, matchbox cars, slinky, etc.), socks, flip flops, pencils, pencil sharpener, note pads, hard candy, lollipops, and gum, hair accessories, etc.

Many thanks for supporting this mission.

NEWS FROM ABROAD

As we've been asked not to forward or post updates due to the

"Now to Him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to His Power that is at work within us, to Him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever!"

NOTE FROM THE LONG FAMILY

Hello Everyone,

It is hard to believe that we have been in Jakarta for an entire year! We celebrated with an entire night (7pm-7am) of fireworks and Mosque "music." It happened to coincide with Idul Fitri, when Muslims break their month of fasting (Ramadan.) We also enjoyed a week with no traffic because the residents of Jakarta all return to their villages to see family or go on a holiday overseas.

Now back to normal...kids are settling into their routine of home school mornings and music, sports, dance, language lessons in the afternoons. The Lord is so good to provide these activities right here at the church or just a couple of minutes away. ...Couldn't do any of it otherwise. Also happy to report those lessons are inexpensive here, so I can put these activities in the budget.

Jim will be in Kalimantan (Borneo) next week trekking through the villages in the interior of the island. He will be in a team from church, helping to share the Love of Christ in these remote communities. Please pray for safety and health. It will be a very rough journey.

Jim will turn 50 on September 1st, so I decided to send us all for some outdoor relaxation. We will be going to one of the islands in Indonesia called Gili Air. It is a tiny island with no cars and lots of beautiful sea life. I booked Jim for his first ever deep sea dive! Thank you to the IRS for Jim's birthday adventure!

I can't remember when I last emailed, but you can always go to my blog www.Long4Him.blogspot.com to read more and to see pictures.

We miss you all and pray that the Lord continues to watch over your comings and goings. Please keep in touch and I will do my best to write back!

Love, Nanci

Keep the Faith All Week with...

“TOGETHER IN FAITH”

(A new Email Devotional Available to Enjoy and Share!)

Mondays are an interesting day for me as a pastor. While the list of things to do has already begun forming the day before with many pressing needs, I tend to take Monday mornings a bit leisurely. I give my dogs a hug, savor a second cup of coffee and sit in wonderful reflection as to how I saw God at work during our time of worship and fellowship on Sunday. I think about the music, the laughter, the tears and the concerns. I think about the faces I noticed that carried burdens or hidden stress. I think about God's Word that was proclaimed—and I think a lot about what the week ahead holds for us in terms of living out that Word.

Many times I find myself thinking of faith insights to share with you, news to remind us of, and spiritual nuggets that might start your week off on a better foot—one that is following God and His ways.

And so I am proud to announce the launch of a Monday e-letter—Together in Faith—a venue to keep us grounded in faith as the week begins. Each week there will a reflection from me and a question or two to ponder as to how to live out your faith. Maybe there will be a faith challenge to take on or perhaps tidbits of news or happenings that took place at Lyall Memorial Federated Church or out within the Millbrook community. Each and every week there will be the sermon from the day before posted for those who missed church or would like to mull it over again for further reflection or to pass it along to a friend or neighbor as a way to invite them to be part of our family of faith.

On a personal note, this Monday e-letter has been on my mind for more than a year now as I often wonder what happens on Monday morning after we've come together and heard God's word and prayed together and then were sent out to be the examples of Christ at work in our community. The reality of what happens is this: Often we quickly forget or get sucked into the busyness of life and we begin a new week with very little time for God.

My hope and prayer is that Together in Faith will slow us down before we get caught up with the things we need to do and see the things we ought to do—the God-things that will build His Kingdom here in Millbrook and beyond. Together in Faith will officially launch September 9th and will be automatically emailed to our current church family email list. If you do not receive it and are interested in receiving it, email me at pastordonna1@gmail.com and we'll add you to the list.

~Blessings, Pastor Donna

Sermon Talk Backs Continue This Fall

Pastor Donna

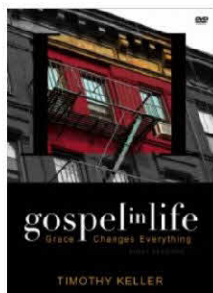

Following coffee hour on Sundays, Pastor Donna invites you to join in on a conversation that takes the day's sermon a step further as we seek how to live out the Word proclaimed. We have had some lively and enlightening conversations in August. These talks are informal and are kept to under an hour. If you would like to join the conversation but are pressed for time with other obligations, feel free to sit and stay for as long as you can.

Bible Study Returns Thursdays this Fall

Bible study at Lyall Memorial Federated returns Thursdays with two classes: an afternoon class starting at 3:30 p.m. and an evening class at 7 p.m. Our first class will meet September 12.

We will be studying Tim Keller's The Gospel in Life, an eight-week course on how to truly live out the gospel—first in your heart, then in your community and then out into the world.

The first session opens the course with the theme of the city; your home now, the world that is. Session 8 closes the course with the theme of the eternal city: your heavenly home, the world that is to come. In between, we will look at how the gospel changes your heart (session 2&3), changes your community (sessions 4 and 5), and changes how you live in the world (sessions 6&7). For more information click on the promotional trailer for the Bible study found at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7xnX5mKdGhI>.

Installation Service Set for September 29

The Reverend Donna Frischknecht-Jackson will be officially installed as Lyall Memorial

Federated Church's pastor on Sunday, September 29 at 3 p.m.

An installation service is a service of worship and praise for what God is doing in a faith community. It is a joyous time to give God our thanks for the new relationship between minister and congregation and for the work that is yet to come that God will entrust us with.

Representatives from the Mid-Hudson Classis of the Reformed Church in America, Mid-Hudson Methodists, and the Quakers will be participating in the service of worship. Area pastors from these denominations as well as Millbrook clergy are also being invited to attend and to wear their robes and red stoles (a symbol of the fiery tongues of Pentecost when the Holy Spirit was unleashed and the church of Christ began!) as a show of support for the new ministry beginning in Millbrook. Harriet Sandmeier, of the Hudson River Presbytery, in which Pastor Donna belongs to, and a regular guest preacher here at Lyall Memorial Federated will be delivering the sermon.

A reception will follow the service.

Because we know how important the church music is to you, we used our Music Fund to keep our music program from any cuts this September.

If you'd like to help replenish the fund, please do so. You can use the envelopes found in the pews (write "music" on it) for your cash donations or a check made out to LMFC with music written in memo line. Either can be put in the collection plate or sent to the church treasurer.

Thank you very much! (Music Committee)

Book Review ~ Kathy King

You're holding a document never intended for human eyes. These classified letters contain the battle strategies of evil agents plotting to deceive and destroy you and your family. Read each word with care. What's at stake is greater than you can imagine.

Lord Foulgrin's Letters and The Ishbane Conspiracy are two novels written by Randy Alcorn and his daughters. They are a contemporary version of C.S. Lewis' The Screwtape Letters, in which the devil is teaching one of his demons how to win over Christians to Satan.

Saint Paul writes in Ephesians 6:11 and 12 "Put on the whole armor of God that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places."

That battle is real. These novels help alert you to that fact. Plan to read them.
