Lyall Memorial Church

A Church whose only label is Christian and whose only head is Christ

Lyall is an interdenominational congregation that welcomes all.

Welcome to Lyall!

Lyall Memorial Church was incorporated in 1926, joining three congregations around Millbrook: United Methodist, Reformed, and Quaker. Nearly ninety years later we find ourselves as an interdenominational church, members and friends hailing from a great many traditions and all walks of life.

What unites us is our belief in Jesus and our desire to follow his teachings. We worship, we reach out to the world around and beyond us, we study, cry and laugh together. We are engaged in nurturing individuals, families as well as our congregation as a whole. Lyall is a remarkable and dynamic place full of energy and redemptive work, a place of discovery and a chance to give ourselves away to something greater. We welcome you to our community and look forward to meeting you and to begin the process of building new friendships together.

Thom Fiet, Pastor

What is asked of you?

Bring yourself as you are. Relax and enjoy the community atmosphere. It isn't what we ask of you, it's what you ask of yourself. It's the journey. We hope you will allow us to join you on yours.
